

Bethany Constance Bio

Bethany Constance, is a partner with her husband Mark in the production company, a713production. Bethany is a talent manager for a713production and is a partner in the Los Angeles based management company, Piper Kaniecki Marks Constance.

Bethany produced the films TROUBLE, a film about children in trouble and how in the modern world children must cope with inner strength in difficult times.and the paranormal thriller CROOKED LANE.

Bethany represents New England based clients, Anthony O'Leary who co-starred as Drew Walker in the star studded film, "The Company Men", directed by John Wells, playing the son of Bobby Walker (Ben Affleck). He can also be seen in the AT&T commercial "The Silent Treatment" and is represented nationally by Don Buchwald & Associates. Hannah McEachern, also represented by Don Buchwald & Assoc., starred in the film "Bleeder" and featured on TV shows "The Bronx is Burning" and "Discover Me". Lucas Ardagna, co-star of the films "Three Weeks to Daytona", and "The Mulberry Tree". Lucas is represented nationally by CESD. Stan Grunder and Tony Clements who are represented nationally by Cindy Osbrink(Osbrink Talent Agency) and Jeff Gill(Jordan, Gill & Dornbaum). For complete client list see www.a713production.com

She founded Academy Management and represented talent in film, television, commercials, voice over, and print for over 10 years before relocating to the east coast. Bethany discovered Sara Paxton, the star of the 2011 holiday release "New Year's Eve", Last House on the Left", "Aquamarine" and the Discovery networks, "Darcy's Wild Life" and Alexander Gould, the voice of "(Finding)Nemo" and co-star of Showtime's "Weeds". Some of her other clients have starred with Robert DeNiro, Sandra Bullock, Adam Sandler, Drew Barrymore, and George Clooney. Her company developed young talent through her acting school, which was on the referral list of top Hollywood agents and Casting Directors.

Bethany graduated from the Syracuse University Drama Department with a BFA. She studied in London with professors from LAMDA and RADA. She is an alumni of the William Esper Studio, Lee Strasberg Institute and the Manhattan Theatre Workshop. She produced, cast, and acted in a number of off-off Broadway shows.

Bethany has been interviewed on television programs such as Entertainment Tonight and E! regarding her expertise in the young talent market. Various trade papers including The Hollywood Reporter, Daily Variety, The Los Angeles Times, The Boston Globe, The Boston Herald, The Wire, Imagine Magazine and NH Magazine have done numerous featured cover articles on her and a713production.

Bethany and Mark have produced music video(s) for singer/songwriter Chatham Yelle and the bands "Leaving Eden", "The Charms" and "Behind Your Eyes", all of which Mark directed.

Bethany holds workshops and private coachings. She can be contacted at 603.978.3662 or at a713production@comcast.net. See Bethany's websites at a713production.com and pkmctalent.com

